Dear Relative:

I hope that you will get some pleasure from this brief history of our family. This, like all other such records, contains errors but I hope that the most of the information is correct. Obituaries are written from memory after the parties have passed on and our memories are far from infallible. It is regrettable that we do not have more information about our ancestors and especially about the lives of Orris and Sybil but we are fortunate in having their grave markers in the Naperville cemetery. They were photographed in 1953.

As you find errors, I wish to suggest that you make corrections in your copy so that those reading it in future years will have the benefit of the corrections. I wish that each one making corrections would please advise me of each correction so I can correct my master copy.

Thanking you all, and Miss Alice Boughton especially for your assistance in helping me compile this record I am,

Sincerely,

INTRODUCTION

Origin of the Boughton Family

In James Boughton's genealogy of the Bouton-Boughton Family he has the following about their origin,

"It is claimed that the Bouton-Boughton race has a traditional record or history, dating back to the Fifth Century, when ancient history tells us that clans or tribes of Gauls inhabited the country bordering on the river Rhone, and extending from Lake Geneva to the Mediterranean Sea, but that they were more particularly identified with the Visigoth clan, the head of the Salian tribe under King Hilderi, A. D. 481, who at his death left his son Clovis, king of the tribe.

From this period, during the reign of Clovis, wars for conquest were of frequent occurrence; the Franks from the north making attacks upon the southern Gauls, were successfully resisted by Clovis, and Syragrius, a Roman usurper, was defeated and his people subjugated by Clovis, who made himself popular with his subjugated subjects by favoring their bishops, and by marrying Holihelde (Clotilde), the niece (or as some historians say) the daughter of the King of Burgundy, a Christian.

Clovis promised his wife that if her God, whose aid he invoked during the battle of Tolbiac, should give him success, then he would embrace her religion, which he subsequently did and was baptized into the Christian faith, and his example was generally followed by his people.

The ancient Bouton Shield, or Coat of Arms, had the following motto on a ground work of perpendicular lines: "De Gules a' la Fasce d'Or," which is old French, and translators say implies "a force as of a Leopard when it attacks with its red mouth open."

To the Dictionnaire des Generaux Francais, the compiler is indebted for the following account which was furnished by Wm. S. Bouton, Esq., of South Norwalk, Ct.

From A. D. 1350, the military and court records abound with the Bouton name for two centuries. Nicholas Bouton, who bore the title of Count Chamilly, Baron Montague de Naton, born, as is supposed, about 1580 and was the father of Harard and John (who were twins), and Noel Bouton, who were Huguenots and refugees during the violent persecutions of the Protestants by the Roman Catholics during the predominance of the Guises in France, at which time many were slaughtered and many escaped to the fastnesses of the surrounding mountains where subsistence was almost impossible. At length the intolerance of the Roman Catholic bigots was overcome and the refugees, many, returned, among whom was the aforesaid Boutons. Noel distinguished himself and was the Marquis de Chamilly, and was subsequently made Marshal of all France; and a life size portrait of him was placed in the gallery of French nobles at Versailles, France, where it is still to be seen."

"The French historian speaking of the Boutons says that it is accorded to a noble ancestry that a proclivity for patriotism, education and religion is seen in the race all down the ages."

"John Bouton, son, as is supposed, of the Count Nicholas Bouton, was a Huguenot and during the existence of the great persecution fled to England, where the Government were offering to send emigrants to America, on condition they would swear allegiance to the Crown of England. A registry of such emigrants was kept at London, a copy of which has been examined by the compiler of this work, and as only one person by the Bouton name is found on that registry, embracing a period of 100 years, from 1600 to 1700, it is supposed that said person was the John Bouton of whom this account is traced, and that all the families of Boutons or Boughtons in this country prior to 1700, were descended from said John Bouton, who embarked from Gravesend, England, in the barque Assurance, July, 1635, and landed at Boston, Massachusetts, in December, 1635, aged 20 years; whether married or not at the time is not known."

PREFACE

The writer of this record realizing that there is no complete record of the descendants of Orris and Sybil Boughton (3583) and if a record is not made soon it will be almost impossible to obtain the information later, for now, only 112 years after the family moved from New York to Illinois, very little is known about the lives of Orris and Sybil, their oldest son, Ezra (3588) and their oldest daughter, Emeline (3589).

Much of the information about the ancestors of Orris and Sybil was obtained from a genealogy written by James Boughton in 1890 in his book Bouton-Boughton Family and from a genealogy written by Willis A. Boughton in 1949 in his book Bouton-Boughton and Farnam Families. Most of the information about the descendants of Orris and Sybil was obtained by the writer by correspondence with relatives and he hereby wishes to thank them for their assistance. It is hoped that most of the information is correct but in such work errors are inevitable and therefore the information should not be used in cases of law.

Notes and Abbreviations

In James Boughton's genealogy he numbered each descendant starting with emigrant John Bouton as number one. In this record the names which appear in the Bouton-Boughton book and are used in this record show their numbers in parentheses. Each descendant of Orris and Sybil is given a number starting with Ezra, their oldest, as number one. These numbers are shown at the left margin opposite each name. To indicate the generation in which each descendant of Orris and Sybil was born his generation is shown in Roman numerals in front of the name. The children of Orris and Sybil are shown as generation number I.

The abbreviations used in this record are; B. for born; M. for married; Res. for residence; D. for died; Int. for interred or buried; W. for a cemetery named Wheatland, located in Wheatland, Twp., Will Co., Ill.

In the days before the Rural Free Delivery of the mails, there was a U. S. post office in Wheatland Twp. named East Wheatland and one in Du Page Twp. named Du Page. These offices have been abolished and now their address is Plainfield.

Naperville is about 30 miles west of Chicago in Du Page Co. which adjoins Will Co. on the north. Wheatland and Du Page townships are in Will Co.

The Du Page Presbyterian church is in Du Page Twp. It is one of the very oldest churches in Northern Ill. Many of the people of both Wheatland and Du Page who attended the Du Page church and have passed on are buried in the Wheatland cemetery.

In the early days of the U. S. it was not uncommon to change the spelling of the family name, this was done in the Bouton-Boughton families. Willis A. Boughton states that "either Elizabeth Seymour, wife of Eleazer 1st, or Abigail Pennoyer, wife of Hezekiah, both descended from distinguished old English families, prevailed on their family to adopt the English spelling before migrating to Victor, N. Y. in the 1790's . . . She wanted the name of the family into which she married to sound as English as her own". In this line of the families the first three generations spelled their names Bouton while David (3467), in the fourth generation and subsequent generations included the "gli".

History

Genealogies of the descendants of "John Bouton who embarked from Gravesend, England in the barque Assurance, July 1635 and landed in Boston, Mass. in Dec. 1635, age 20" have been written by several. Probably the most complete and authentic, up to 1890 was written by James Boughton, published in his book Bouton-Boughton Family.

This record covers the descendants of Orris and Sybil Boughton (3583) only, who with part of their family moved from Pembroke, N. Y. to Naperville, Ill. in 1811-2-3. The obituary of Mary Scott Boughton (3592) states that she, "Mrs. Boughton was born in the town of Chester, Geauga county, Ohio on the 9th day of Jan. 1822. While she was yet a child her mother died, and at the age of ten she went to Pembroke, Genesee Co., N. Y. where she lived with relatives until her marriage to Warren W. Boughton (3592) on Sept. 22, 1841. Soon after this event a party of five persons, consisting of herself and husband, his brother Matthew Curtis (3591) and wife and their son Rollin C. (3597) started in an open wagon for Illinois." Due to the close approach of winter on their arrival in Ill. they stayed until the following Spring with friends who came to Ill. earlier and had built homes. These friends were the families of Harry Boardman, Robert Strong and Jonathan Royce. Part of the original Royce house is occupied at this time by descendants of the Royce family.

Mrs. Boughton's (3592) obituary also states that "soon after Matthew (3591) and Warren (3592) came west to Ill. they were followed by their father and mother (3583), their sons Seth D. (3593) and Orris Horatio (3595) and their daughter Sybil (3596), Mrs. Cornelius Davis, each of whom settled on land adjoining that of the first party, in Wheatland and Du Page townships." Later Matthew (3591) and Orris H. (3595) moved to Watseka, Ill. and in 1884 Orris H. and family went to Salem, Marion County, Ill. Seth D. (3593) remained in Ill. for a number of years then went to Iola, Kansas where his only daughter, 234, Lona, was born. Later Seth and family moved to Buffalo, N. Y. Sybil Ann (3596) and Cornelius Davis lived in Naperville, where three of their four children were born, then moved to Wheatland and later to Danforth, Ill. near Watseka, where, 359, Minor Cornelius Davis, their youngest was born, later the family moved to Flushing, Michigan.

In the public library in Wheaton, Ill. the county seat of Du Page Co., the following was found;

"Warren W. Boughton (3592) deceased, of Wheatland Twp., Will Co.; the subject of this sketch, was among the first settlers of Wheatland. He was born in Pembroke, Genesee county, N. Y. Feb. 10, 1817 and was the son of Orris and Sybil Boughton (3583) who emigrated west with six children, to Ill. and settled in Wheatland Twp., Will Co. in May 1842; here they set out farming. Orris died in Aug. 1843 age 61 years; his wife died 1860. Warren W. Boughton (3592) married Mary Scott, born in Geauga Co., Ohio, Jan. 9, 1822. Mr. Boughton in 1850 started for the gold fields of Calif. and died enroute at Council Bluffs, Ia., leaving his wife and two children; 101, Newell J. who was a soldier in the Civil war; enlisted in 1862 in Co. L, Bolton's battery and served until the close of the war. He was honorably discharged and died in 1876. 176, Wm. D. Boughton, the second child, now working the homestead was born in Wheatland Twp. in Will Co. Feb. 28, 1846. He married Emma J. Boardman, daughter of Franklin and Mindwell Bates Boardman who settled in Wheatland Twp. in 1844."

In the public library in Joliet, the county seat of Will Co. the following article was found;

"Orris Boughton (3583) came to Will Co. from N. Y. in 1842 with his wife and family of four sons and two daughters. Warren W. Boughton (3592) son of Orris was born and reared in Genase Co., N. Y. He married Mary L. Scott who was born in Geauga Co., Ohio. He died in Des Moines, Ia. in 1850. 101, Newell, son of 100, Warren W. (3592) was born in Du Page Twp., Will Co. in 1842. He served in the Civil war three and one half years in Bolton's battery of Chicago. His wife was Ellen Scarrett, a daughter of Perry Scarrett."

Both of the above articles state that four sons and two daughters came to Ill. with their parents, Orris and Sybil (3583). However they did not all come at the same time. Matthew and wife (3591) and Warren and wife (3592) came first and were followed by the others later.

Charles G. Boughton, 239, states that "Ezra N. Boughton (3588) stayed on the old farm (near Corfu, N. Y.) until his death" but he came to Ill. for a short time at least, for a quit claim deed was found giving land to Orris H. Boughton (3595) written in Will Co., Ill. on June 10, 1845 which has the following signatures;

Sybil N. Boughton, wife of Orris (3583)
Ezra N. Boughton, and his wife, Phebe (3588)
Emeline B. Smith, wife of Horace Smith (3590)
Matthew C. Boughton and wife, Julia E. (3591)
Warren W. Boughton and wife, Mary L. (3592)
Seth D. Boughton and wife, Hannah M. (3593)
Sybil Ann Boughton (3596)

The deed was signed in the presence of Issaac Scarrett and Cornelius Davis. It is thought that Ezra and wife and Emeline and husband stayed in Ill. but a short time for no other information about their stay can be found. No record of Sybil N. Boughton's (3583) life from 1845 until her death in 1860 can be found.

Orris H. Boughton, (3595), was born in Tonawanda, N. Y. on Feb. 9, 1825 and came to Will Co., Ill. with his parents, Orris and Sybil Boughton, (3583) in 1842 where he resided until 1850. He went to the Calif. gold fields by the Overland route with three brothers. One of his brothers, Warren W. (3529), died enroute and was buried at Council Bluffs, Ia. Orris (3595) and the other two brothers, Matthew C. (3591), and Seth D. (3593), continued on their journey.

"It was a perilous journey crossing rivers and mountains where the Indians were hostile and buffalos roamed by the thousands. The three brothers remained in Calif. about a year then returned to Wheatland and Du Page Twp., Will Co. Matthew C. (3591), with his wife and family returned to Calif. and after remaining there for a number of years returned to Ill."

Orris H., (3595), first wife, nee, Cathrine Porter died in 1850 and on July 3, 1853 married Caroline E. Passmore of Kenosha, Wis. She was born in N. Seriba, Oswego Co., N. Y. On Oct. 23, 1864 they moved to Iroquoise, Co., Ill. and on Mar. 4, 1884 moved to Marion, Co., Ill. and located near Salem. Here they lived the remainder of their lives. Both were buried in the East Lawn Cemetary at Salem.

254, Mr. Warren L. Boughton of Harvey, Ill. has an old bible in which is written "My grandfather, Orris Horatio Boughton (3595) was born near Tonawanda, N. Y. Cattaragus, Co. Feb. 9, 1825. He spent his early years in N. Y. and in 1843 at the age of 18 moved with his family to Naperville, Ill."

From the above it is not clear just what year Orris and Sybil and part of their family went to Ill. but I am sure that, 6, Matthew (3591), Julia, his wife and their son, 7, Rollin and 100, Warren (3592) and Mary his wife went to Ill. late in the Autumn of 1841.

239, Charles G. Boughton on Jan. 6, 1934 stated that "Grandfather Orris Boughton (3583) and his wife Sybil came from Conn. around 1800 and settled on a large farm of 1000 acres at Corfu, N. Y. 25 miles east of Buffalo; raised a large family of boys and one girl Sybil Ann (3596), who married Mr. Davis in Ill.

I remember the old mansion, when I was a boy, it was in ruins and I played around there. It was a large house in those days, had a large fire place, would take a four foot log. Lumber was plentiful in those days and the shingles were all hand made, 16 inches long.

I do not know when he Orris (3583) came west and settled in Naperville, must have been around 1840. His son, Ezra Newell (3588), stayed on the old farm until his death.

My father Seth D. (3593) and your grandfather Warren (3592) went to Calif., overland in 1850 to seek their fortunes, in which they did not, and my father came back alone as his brother died going out. I have heard my father say that the trip was an awful hardship on beasts as well as men.

He came east and married my mother Sarah Phelps at Corfu, Oct. 1860, then went west and settled on his farm at Iola, Kansas. The Rebels came up and drove the people off, and they came east and settled in Buffalo and he went into the milk business until he retired."

The following letter was written March 13, 1947 by 12, Jessie I. Arnold (3602) of 711 West 52nd Place, Los Angeles, Calif.

"My mother's bible was sold when her estate was sold but I never learned who got it. My father, Orris M. Boughton (3598) died Jan. 11, 1885 in Tulare, Calif. My father was taking his family to Mederia, Calif. but he became so ill that we had to take him off the train at Tulare. We left Wetseka, Ill. the day after Christmas 1884 for Calif. for his health but he only got as far as Tulare when he said that he had to get off the train. After he died my mother came to San Diego, Calif. for her mother and two brothers and one sister lived in or near there at that time. My sister, Viola, Mrs. Chas. E. Gyger (3601), was 16 years old, I was 15, brother Homer (3603) was about 11, Bertie (3604) was about 7 and Pearl (3605) was about three years old. Viola married in Nov. 1887. I helped my mother as she was keeping boarders to make a living for her family. I married Sept. 1st 1890 in San Diego. Homer did not marry until after mother died. He married a widow, Mrs. Margaret Burris. They never had any children. Pearl married Virgil Y. Robertson, in 1901 in Los Angeles. They had two children, Eunice died by a train running over her when she was about 20 months old. They lived in Glendale near the railroad. Erdine was born 13 years later and is now Mrs. Beryl S. Lewis. Bertie Boughton married Della Bass, they had one girl, Alma, Mrs. Avery Van Valin of Tucson, Ariz.

Yes I knew Levant Boughton's family, Lizzie attended class with me from about 8 years old to 15 years old and I went to school with Curtis, Lizzie, John and Robert. We left Ill. before the twins came."

The following excerpts were taken from "a Brief History of the Presbyterian Church of Du Page "On March 9, 1844 the First Congregational Church of Naperville and other churches met in the Old Hickory school house in Du Page Twp. and were organized into a Presbyterian Church." "Composing the church at its organization were," among others "Sybil N. wife of Orris Boughton (3583), Warren W. Boughton (3592) and Mary his wife." "On March 23, 1844 the following persons were received into the church by letter, Seth D. Boughton (3593), Matthew C. Boughton (3591), his wife Julia A. and Hanna, wife of Seth D. Boughton (3593). That summer Jonathan G. Porter was chosen as the pastor of the church." "At a meeting held Dec. 17, 1864 Lyman Meacham, Seth D. Boughton (3593) and Mungo Patterson were elected as trustees of the church." "On July 21, 1849 the church resolved to proceed with the construction of a church building as soon as possible and Seth D. Boughton (3593) and R. W. Smith were chosen to visit the members and take their notes as payments on the new building." "In 1850 Rev. Porter, the father of Mrs. Orris H. Boughton (3595) nee Cathrine Porter, resigned as pastor."

35, "Robert Rollin Boughton (3608) son of Levant Boughton and Janette Hall Boughton (3599) was born July 24, 1875 at Watseka, Ill. He married Maggie May Purgett on Nov. 12, 1895. She was born in Watseka Jan. 11, 1881. They lived on a farm near Watseka until Jan. 9, 1909 at which time they purchased a farm one mile south of Stillwater, Okla. They moved by train when their oldest son was nine years of age. This part of Okla. was part of the original Indian Territory which was opened for to white settlers in 1889 with a great rush for homesteads. It was one of these homesteads that Mr. and Mrs. Boughton bought. They lived on the farm and in Stillwater to this date, 1954, and have seen the town grow from a population of 3,000 in 1950 to more than 20,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Boughton have taken an active interest in the Farmers Union and the Farm Womens Club work. Mr. Boughton has held offices as high as County president in the Union and Mrs. Boughton as high as the State President of the Farm Home Club. Mr. and Mrs. Boughton are members of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches, respectively but their main interest has been in the Rural Interdenominational Sunday School work. The Boughtons had six children four of whom are deceased, the remaining two are 36, Homer, who is Chief of Police and 41, Glenn, who is Fire Dept. Captain of Stillwater at this time, 1954."

Obituary

It is regrettable that more is not known about the lives of Orris and Sybil (3583). They came west with some of their children in 1842-3. He died Oct. 11, 1843 and she died Feb. 20, 1869. Both were buried in a Naperville cemetery. She must have lived with some of her children while in Illinois but no record or other information of her life in Ill. can be found except that she signed a quit claim deed in Joliet, Ill. on June 10, 1845. The lives of their children clearly indicate that both were parents of high Christian ideals.

6 Matthew C. Boughton (3591) the fourth child of Orris and Sybil Boughton was born in Pembroke, Genesee Co., N. Y. Nov. 27, 1810. His wife Julia E. Mallory was born in Litchfield, Conn. Aug. 20, 1816. They were married Sept. 17, 1835 and lived in Pembroke until 1841, when they moved to Will Co., Ill.

In the Spring of 1850 Matthew C. and his three brothers, 99 Warren W. (3592), 232 Seth D. (3593) and 252 Orris Horatio (3595) started for the gold fields of Calif. Warren W. died enroute at Council Bluffs, Ia. The three continued to Calif. Matthew returned to Ill. the following year. During the winter of 1853 he sold his farm and returned to Calif. with his wife and family where they stayed until 1867. He and his family returned to Ill. and bought a farm in Iroquois Co. where he and his wife lived until their deaths.

Both Matthew and Julia united with the Presbyterian Church in Pembroke in 1836 and after returning from Calif. they became members of the Congregational Church of Crescent City, Ill. He died Feb. 15, 1893 and she died Nov. 5, 1900. "It will be seen from the above that Mr. and Mrs. Boughton walked hand in hand through all the vicissitudes of true Christian Life for more than a half century". They were buried in the Oak Hill cemetery in Watseka.

7. Rollin C. Boughton (3597), the oldest son of Matthew C. and Julia E. Boughton was born in Pembroke, N. Y. March 12, 1837. When about five years of age he traveled with his father and mother in a two seated buggy to the state of Ill. and settled on a farm about thirty miles west of Chicago, Ill. At the time of the "gold fever" he went to Calif. with his parents and after a few years he returned to N. Y. via the Isthmus of Panama. On Oct. 17, 1876 he was married to Miss Alice A. Doane of Painsville, Ohio where she was born in 1850. They adopted Mrs. Boughton's niece Rose Alice Dusenberry. They lived on the South Side in Chicago where they were members of the Memorial Baptist Church." They were a jovial couple and it was a splendid home to visit. Both were interred in the Wheatland cemetery.

23. Levant Boughton (3599) was the third son of Matthew C. and Julia E. Boughton, born in Will Co., Ill., Nov. 22, 1845 and died in his home in Watseka, Ill. Aug. 22, 1923. In 1853 he went to Calif. with his parents where he remained until the early sixties. On leaving Calif. he went to N. Y. where he lived with an uncle for a few years, then went to Will Co., Ill. and worked on a farm until his marriage to Miss Janet Hall on Feb. 28, 1866. After this event they went to Watseka where they spent the remainder of their lives. He was jovial, kindly and friendly, strictly honest and upright in his dealings with his fellow men. He made many warm friends, was interested in public affairs and was assessor of Belmont Twp. for twenty years.

He and Mrs. Boughton were members of a Presbyterian Church, organized at Prairie View schoolhouse, until it disbanded, then they united with the Presbyterian Church in Watseka, in which he was an elder for many years.

Mrs. Boughton was born in Will Co., Ill. Feb. 1, 1848 and died Jan. 18, 1939. She was a faithful Christian woman and the fond mother of a large family. She and her husband were interred in the Oak Hill Cemetery in Watseka.

64. Seth Doty Boughton (3600) the youngest son of Matthew C. and Julia E. Boughton was born July 16, 1853 in Tuolumne, Calif. in the heart of the gold mining region at the foot hills of the Sierra Nevadas. Remaining in the gold country for the first fourteen years of his life, Seth came from there to Watseka in 1867 by way of the Isthmus of Panama. He lived in and near Watseka the remainder of his life.

He was an ardent Presbyterian worker. On Sunday, Dec. 14, 1930 toward the close of the services he made a short talk, exhorting a more liberal attendance at the Sunday School by the members of the church and mentioned contributions toward the Christmas fund, saying that he would stand in the vestibule to receive donations at the close of the services. While talking it was noticed that he supported himself as if overtaken by a moment of dizziness. While in the vestibule he dropped to the floor as the congregation was leaving. They rushed him to the Froquoise hospital but he died at 12:30 before arriving at the hospital.

After returning from Calif. he completed his education in the Watseka schools and after teaching school for some time he was married to Miss Eva Lord on April 20, 1882 and soon went to farming. His wife also was an ardent Christian devoted to her family and her Church. Thus this couple left an ideal heritage for their children to hallow.

65. "Mrs. Cora E. Boughton, wife of Ray L. Boughton (3610), the daughter of Asa O. and Alice White, of Milford, Ill., was a very well known and highly respected Christian woman of St Maries, Idaho, was born Sept. 5, 1881. She resided in Milford until she was 24 years of age, then moved to Chelan, Wash. with her parents where they stayed for about a year, then went to Johnson, Wash. where she met and married Ray L. Boughton on April 2, 1914.

Mr. and Mrs. Boughton went to St Maries to make their home. Both were active members of the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Boughton was superintendent of the Sunday school for 15 years, a member of the Ladies Aid Society and Chapter 49 of the Order of Eastern Star. She was a kind and devoted Christian wife and mother. She lived a very happy and useful life and Passed On at the age of 67 on Aug. 22, 1949."

100. Warren W. Boughton (3592), who was among the first settlers in Wheatland township, Will county, Illinois was born in Pembroke, Genesee county, N. Y. Feb. 10th, 1816. He was the son of Orris (3583) and Sybil Boughton. Warren's wife Mary Scott Boughton was born in Chester, Geauga county, O. Jan. 9th, 1822. They had two sons, 101 Newell J. and 176 Wm. D. In 1850 Warren and three brothers started for the gold fields of Calif. Enroute Warren was stricken with small pox at Council Bluffs, Ia. and soon died and was buried there. When his widow became financially able she went to Council Bluffs to have the body taken to Ill. for interment but was unable to find any one who could identify the grave. A lady remembered the case but was not sure which of two graves was Warren's so his widow did no more about having the remains moved to Ill. but put a marker to his memory in the Wheatland cemetery where many other Boughtons are buried.

100. "Mary L. Boughton, nee Scott, wife of 100 Warren W. Boughton (3592) was born in Chester, Geauga Co., Ohio Jan. 9, 1822. Her mother died when she was ten years old. She then went to Pembroke, N. Y. where she lived with relatives until her marriage to Warren W. Boughton on Sept. 22, 1841, soon after which event a party of five persons consisting of herself, her husband, his brother, 6 Matthew C. (3591) and his wife and their son, 7 Rollin C. (3597) started in an open wagon for Ill."

"Warren and Mary homesteaded in Wheatland Twp., Will Co., Ill. where they built a log house in which 176 William D. was born. Here they lived and toiled, enduring all the hardships and discomforts of pioneer life, without the cheering influence of church or school, the nearest church being in Plainfield seven miles away. Prices were low in the nearest market, Chicago, thirty miles distant and very often the price obtained for a load of grain barely paid the cost of the trip which took two days going and two returning. Under such circumstances one may be sure that the cost of living and making necessary improvements, economical as the people in those days were compelled to be, far exceeded the income from the farm, and soon it became necessary to borrow money to procure the necessities of life and an accumulation of debts began which it seemed almost impossible to overcome. Thus matters continued until 1849 when the Calif. gold fever overspread the entire country, and in due time reached the little community of Wheatland."

"The stories of fabulous amounts of gold being dug from the ground in so short a time had their effect, and after much discussion it was decided by the four Boughton brothers that they would try to obtain their share of the wealth. Accordingly, in the early Spring of 1850 they started in their own conveyance on the long overland journey to Calif. Just before reaching Council Bluffs, Ia. Mrs. Boughton's husband was stricken by smallpox and died in a few days. He was buried in Council Bluffs and the remainder of the party continued on their journey."

"By the death of her husband Mrs. Boughton was left with two small sons to train and educate and a large indebtedness, which had been greatly increased by the cost of the Calif. trip. Altho of small stature Mrs. Boughton had a strong determination to succeed in what ever she undertook; and when some of her friends advised her to sell and return back East she said "No, I will stay here and free the land from debt and make a home for myself and children," and she succeeded in doing as she said, often going into the field to help with the harvests."

"When the Civil war broke out, her oldest son, 101 Newell J. then a boy of eighteen, was among the first to enlist and served throughout the war and what those months and years of anxiety were to the widowed mother none but those who have passed through similar experiences can tell, but she bore bravely through it all. She was a woman of strong religious convictions and was the last survivor of ten persons who met at the Goodrich school on the 9th of March 1844 to organize the Du Page Presbyterian Church. She became a member of the Presbyterian Church of Pembroke, N. Y. at the early age of eleven years and lived a beautiful Christian life until her Spirit went to Him who gave it."

"Mrs. Boughton was always interested in whatever was of benefit to the community and the country and it was mainly to her suggestion that a woman's department was added to the Wheatland Plowing Match; an institution which is well known over Northern Ill. She was a kind neighbor and a warm hearted friend ever ready to respond to any call for charity or acts of kindness. In the early summer of 1898 her health began to fail and after a few months she was stricken with paralysis from which she never recovered."

"Thus briefly are narrated a few of the incidents of the life of a true-hearted Christian Woman, and altho she will be greatly missed in her home and among her many friends, we know that what is our loss is her gain, for already she has heard that welcome plaudit, 'Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joys of thy Lord'."

102. Mary Cornelia Boughton, daughter of Ellen Scarrett and 101 Newell Boughton I was born in Buffalo, N. Y. Sept. 12, 1868 and died in the Clark Co. hospital in Iowa Dec. 4, 1954. Her parents moved from Buffalo to Will Co., Ill. when she was six months old. Her father, a corporal in the Civil War, was discharged in Aug. 1865, died June 6, 1876.

Mary grew to womanhood in Plainfield, Ill. She taught school for some time then went to live with an uncle to take care of her invalid aunt and their children. In 1880 several families from Will Co., Ill. moved to Cherokee, Ia. Mary's mother and stepfather were among them. Here she met Henry Shoup to whom she was married in April 1891. To this union seven children were born, two of whom have passed on. One served in W. W. I and six grandsons served in W. W. II. Her husband, Henry Shoup died Jan. 27, 1933 and on Feb. 24, 1936 she and Curtis Thompson were married.

Mary united with the Methodist Church when quite young and remained a faithful member until her death, being a member of the New Virginia church for more than 40 years. She always was a willing helper in the Sunday school in which she taught for many years, often walking two and one half miles to attend.

She was a kind and loving mother, a devoted wife, a good neighbor always ready to help others in time of trouble. Her cheerfulness and courage was an inspiration to all who knew her and she will be greatly missed by her host of friends and relatives.

A poem she loved and often quoted reveals her noble Christian character, He Leadeth Me, a few lines of which are quoted below.

He Leadeth Me.
And by "still waters?" Not always so;
Ofttimes the heavy tempests 'round me blow
And over my soul the waves and billows go,
And when the storms beat loudest, and I cry
Aloud for help, the Master standeth by,
And whispers to my soul, "Lo it is I."

176. William Doty Boughton, the second son of 100 Warren W. and Mary Scott Boughton was born Feb. 28, 1846 in Wheatland Twp., Will Co., Ill. He married Emma J. Boardman of the same address in 1869. She was born June 15, 1850 the daughter of Franklin and Mindwell Bates Boardman.

William and Emma attended the local district school where their seven children also attended. Both of them and their family attended the Du Page Presbyterian church that Wm's. mother helped to organize.

William's character was molded by his mother as his father died when Wm. was only four years of age. His integrity and judgment were recognized by all who knew him. He was much interested in all public affairs and was a school director for many years while his children were in school, was Township Supervisor for a number of terms, supervised the rebuilding of the Du Page church, the district school and several bridges across the Du Page river.

Mrs. Boughton was a lovely, meek Christian woman devoted to her family and to her church. They were an ideal couple. He died Sept. 2, 1928, she died June 1, 1929. Both were buried in the Wheatland cemetery.

177. Mrs. Mina Boughton Eaton, the daughter of 176, William and Emma Boughton was born in Wheatland Twp. (P.O. Plainfield, Ill.) 3-24-1872. She attended the local district school, named the White School, where her father and mother, her brothers and sister were educated. Later she attended the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill. She was always interested in education and taught in a number of district schools near her home. She was a member of the Du Page Presbyterian Church and after she and her husband retired from farming and moved to Plainfield she and her family united with the Congregational Church there. She, like her mother and grandmother, was always much interested in community affairs, the church and was anxious to help others and especially the young people.

184. Della Boughton Patterson, the daughter of 176, William D. and Emma J. Boughton was born Sept. 22, 1875 at Plainfield, Ill. She was educated in the local district school and later attended the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill. About the time she finished the local school there was quite a fad in elocution and Della excelled in this. She recited two tales which won her a gold medal at a contest held in Joliet, Ill. The tales were "Durias Green and His Flying Machine" and "The One Hoss Shay".

Five rough brothers never had a more loving and sympathetic sister than Della. She like her mother was rather retiring, a lovely Christian character, a member of the DuPage Presbyterian church.

Della's last days were sad for her whole right lung was removed on account of a cancer and in about a year she died of another cancer. Her daughter said "I think that God was very good to mother for He took her mind first so that things did not trouble her, especially the pain."

186. Mrs. Lulu Boardman Boughton died in the St. Mary's hospital in Rochester, Minn. June 21, 1947, four days after the removal of a cancer. Mrs. Boughton was born in Leesville, Calif. June 15, 1879, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Boardman. She attended the local school in Leesville and was a graduate of State Teachers College at Chico, Calif.

Mrs. Boughton was married in Corte Madera, Calif. by her brother-in-law Rev. Robert Webb, June 3, 1915 to 186 Newell J. Boughton II of Chicago. In 1921 they moved to Parsons, Kan. where all members of the family became members of the Presbyterian Church. She was an ardent Christian woman devoted to her church, to her family and to her garden of flowers. Her love for music, art and literature was clearly shown by the many poems and the things she made to adorn her home. She spent many happy hours in her flower garden and her Christian character can best be shown by a plaque she made and put in her garden.

A Garden.

Where the moonbeams on the water play,
Where the birds sing all the live long day,
Where the blossoms in the breezes sway,
Where wonders here have their birth,
Yes, we are nearer God's heart in a garden
Than any where else on earth.

213. Frank Boardman Boughton, age 67, a retired farmer, died at his home 507 S. Main St., Naperville, Ill. April 13th, 1953. He suffered a stroke in Nov. 1951 and soon became unconscious and remained in a coma until the end; during this time he did not speak a rational word nor recognize his wife. He was a member of the Du Page Presbyterian Church.

The Naperville Clarion stated that it is strange that Frank is the first of the many Boughtons living just south of town to live here, 109 years after his grandparents emigrated here from New York.

214. David W. Boughton, the son of, 176. William and Emma Boughton was born, lived his entire life and died on the farm that his grandparents homesteaded and on which his father was born, lived his entire life and died. David like his father was a man of very strong convictions, when he was sure that he was right no one could make him do otherwise. Some have called it Boughton stubbornness but David was willing to listen to reason. He was as strong in his religious convictions as in other considerations. He was buried in the Wheatland cemetery where his father, mother, grandmother, three sisters and two brothers now rest.

221. Mrs. Della Green Boughton, wife of Reuben S. Boughton, a daughter of Wheeler and Ida Colegrove Green of Plainfield, Ill. died in an arthritis hospital after a long and painful illness. Her noble Christian character was clearly shown by her wonderful cheerfulness for never once did she complain of the agonizing pain she suffered so long.

In her youth she was a member of the Baptist Church of Plainfield and after her marriage she united with the Du Page Presbyterian Church where her husband was a member. Having a beautiful soprano voice she sang in the church choir, at funerals and at many other occasions.

After Mrs. Boughton's death her husband purchased and installed in the Church, that all of the family attended, a modern electric church organ to commemorate her love for music and his reverence for her lovely Christian character.

239. Mr. Charles G. Boughton and his wife Louisa Dawson Boughton were born in Buffalo, N. Y. and lived their entire lives there. He was born Dec. 17, 1863, she was born Aug. 16, 1868. They were truly a devoted christian couple, being members of three Baptist churches near where they lived at different times, the Cedar Street, the Reid Memorial and the Delaware Ave. Churches. He was baptised in the old Cedar Street church and served as a deacon and treasurer for many years, for the last 47 years he was a member of the Delaware Ave. Church. Both Mr. and Mrs. Boughton were members of the several church organizations.

They both lived long passed the three score and ten years. She died Aug. 21, 1951, age 83, he died April 10, 1954 age 90. Both were interred in Chautauqua Cemetery, Wahmeda, on beautiful Lake Chautauqua, near Buffalo.

267. Mr. George W. and Juniata Boughton Leckrone were among the early residents of Warion County, Ill. He was born on a farm near Salem on July 30, 1861 and died Dec. 24, 1946. Juniata was born near Crescent City, Ill. Dec. 22, 1864 and died Mar. 8, 1933. Both were active members of the Zion M. E. church of Salem and were Laid at Rest in the East Lawn Cemetary in Salem.

In her young womanhood she joined the Zion M. E. church and was a truly devoted Christian wife and mother, raising her children in the "fear and admonition of the Lord," and they will indeed rise up and call her blessed, she was most happy when doing something to make others happy. The songs sang at her funeral, The Old Rugged Cross, In the Garden and the Rock of Ages, best tell of her lovely character.

274. Marjorie Deadmond; The following excerpts were taken from an obituary written by one of Marjorie's school teachers.

Time and life pass quickly. The earthly life which we today honor has left a legacy of good deeds, kindnesses and sympathy scattered with a lavish hand. For such was the life of Marjorie Deadmond, the oldest child and daughter of 273 Claude and Ruby Hiestand. She was born Sept. 26, 1913 and passed away at the Salem Memorial hospital Dec. 7, 1954.

Her entire life was spent in this immediate vicinity where she not only shared but where she assumed her responsibilities of leadership in the affairs of the church, school and community.

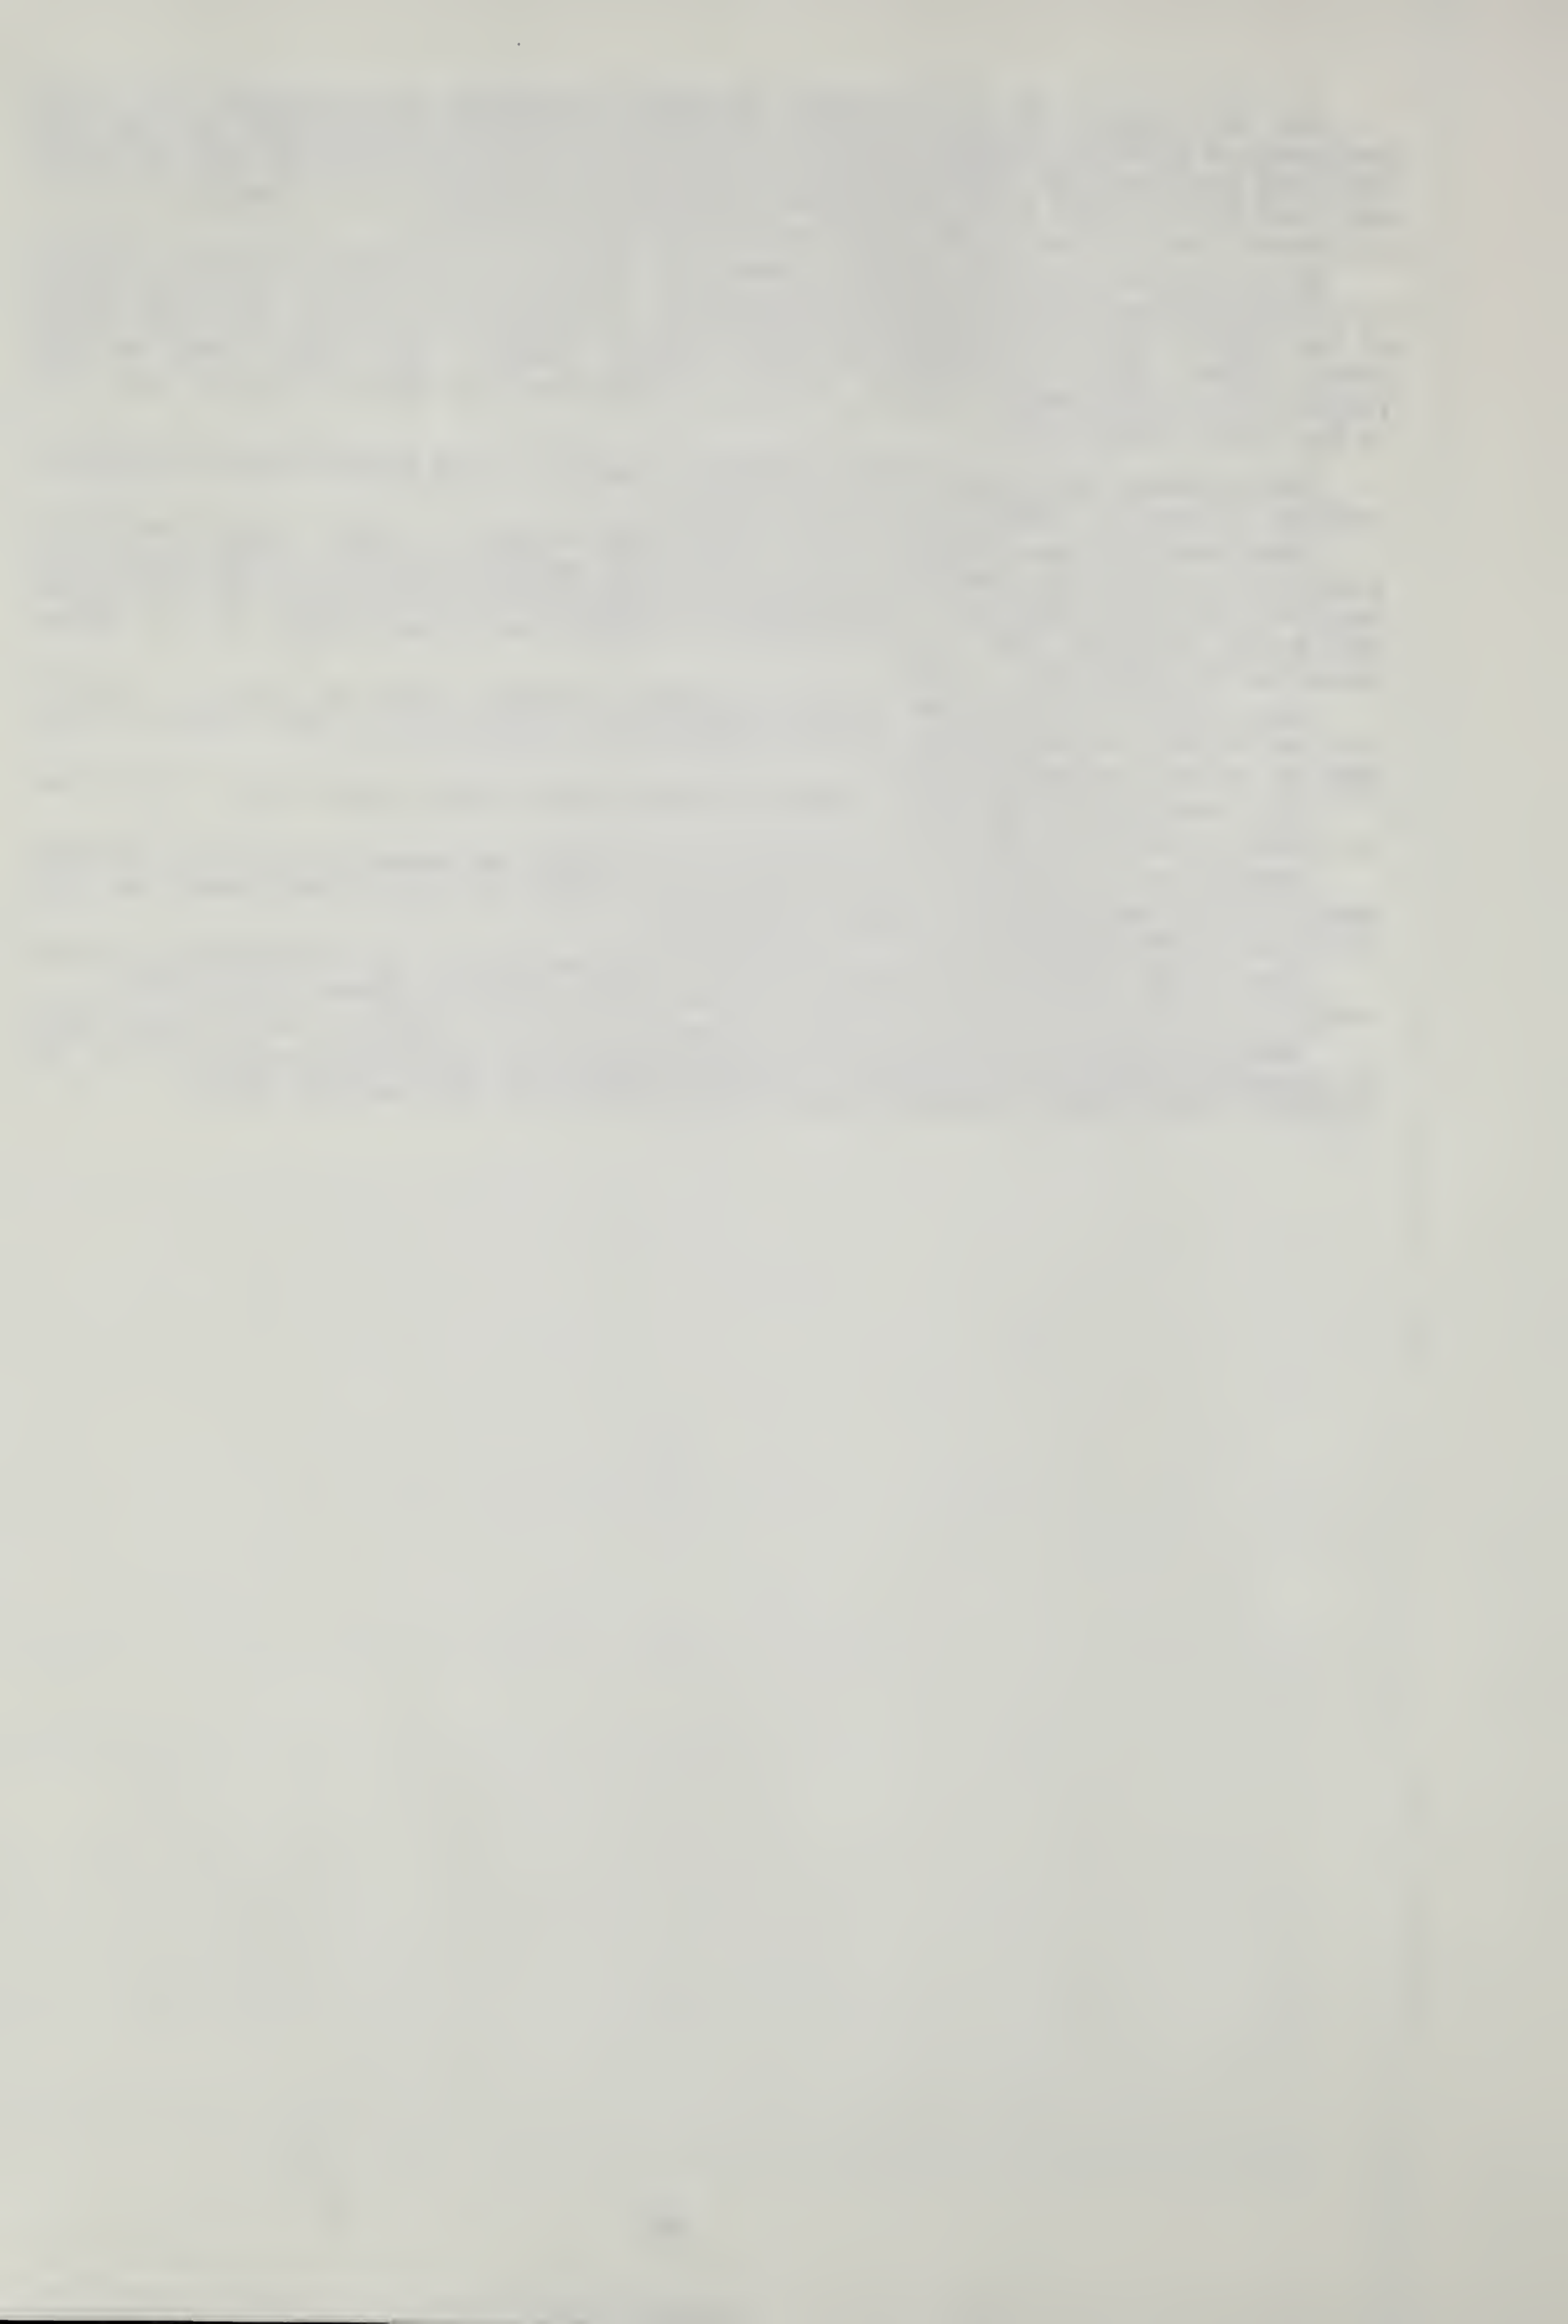

At a very tender age she accepted Christ as her Master and hand in hand she has since walked by His side.

Diligent as a student, yet no merrier face could be found at play for Marjorie was carefree and gay. Joy made her face to shine and her merry heart to shed radiance of good cheer over her companions.

After high school at the age of 19 she was married to Leo Deadmond. To this couple were born five children, Mary Jane, Nancy, Richard, Patsy and Sandra.

Marjorie shared work, play and planning with her children and trained them in tolerance, justice, honesty and sincerity. This is a priceless heritage which her children will always remember and cherish through the coming years.
